

REMOVAL OF A HOLDING SYMBOL

(Section 36 of the Planning Act RSO, 1990 as amended and Ontario Regulation 545/06, S.8)

Introduction

Local council may use a holding “H” symbol on a Zoning By-Law passed under Section 34 of the Planning Act (use the Zoning By-law process to implement a Holding Zone). Holding Zones are used to put limits on development of land, until certain conditions are met. A holding “H” symbol may be removed by amending the original Zoning By-law.

Section 36 of the Planning Act sets out the process and requirements for removing the holding “H” symbol of a Zoning By-law. The local municipality is the approval authority for an application to remove a Holding “H” symbol.

Process

Complete Application:

- Application form, fee, and supporting material(s) submitted to the Manitoulin Planning Board on behalf of the Municipality.
- Application reviewed for completeness and prescribed information.
- If complete, application assigned a file number and processing commences.

Notice of Intention (O. Reg. 545/06 S. 8)

Notice of Intention to pass an amending By-law to remove the holding “H” symbol is given; as required by the Planning Act (20 days notice).

Either by:

- personal service or prepaid first class mail to the owner of the subject property. If the owner of the subject property is a condominium corporation, notice may be given to the condominium corporation instead of being given to all land owners;
OR
- publication in the newspaper
AND
- by personal service, mail or fax to the Local Municipal Office.
AND
- by personal service, mail or fax to every person or public body requesting notice.

The notice shall include the following:

- An explanation of the effect of the removal of the holding “H” symbol.
- A description of the subject land and a key map showing the subject land.
- A statement of the earliest day on which council proposes to meet to pass the amending By-law.

No public meeting is required.

A notice of decision is only required to be sent to the property owner. No appeal period, other than for the owner if Council refuses to or neglects to make a decision on the application within 120 days.
